IL FRIULANO "RONCO CUCCO" COLLIO 2009

Category: Friulano DOC Collio

Grapes: 100% tocai friulano

Vineyard name: Tal Ronch – Ronchi San Giovanni

Soils: Sandstone-marl

Orientation: Northeast-southwest

Elevation: 80 metres

Training system: Guyot

Harvest: 22 September 2009

Production in bottles: 3,300

Vinification: After gentle pressing of the grapes, the must is cryo-settled, then ferments at controlled temperature.

The wine rests on the lees, with frequent bâtonnage.

Sensory profile: Friulano is considered the standard-bearer among Friulan white wines. Showing deep yellow, it displays the classic fragrance of wildflowers, with hints of creamy butter. It is dry, complex, and velvety in the mouth, with a lovely hint of bitterish almond on the finish.

Serving suggestions: Outstanding as an aperitif, it is delicious with fresh cheeses, prosciutto San Daniele, and even with full-flavoured first courses. Enjoy at 12°C.

Technical data: Alcohol: Alcohol: 14.2% –

Total acidity: 4.7g/l
